Today's Program

April 3, 2006
"Baseball"
Speaker:
Marty Gervais

Coach Pete's Corner

The New York Knicks were led by an amazing group of players including Dave DeBusschere who tell us, "The best teams have chemistry. They communicate with each other and they sacrifice personal glory for the common goal." Rotary has that kind of chemistry. We talk, we support each other and we make a difference - together.

Rotary Club of Windsor (1918)

Monday, March 27, 2006
Chair: Maureen Lucas
Invocation: Clyde Guy
Reporter: Ed Zusko

Announcements

1. Gerry Pocock announced the Eli Goldin award nominations will be extended for another two weeks.
2. Ian Henderson talked about Bingo and thanked everyone involved in helping.
3. Bill MacArthur introduced new members Marcela Diaz and Julio Villafuerte, who were inducted by PDG Murray Elder.
4. President Peter presented a check to DG Elect, Jennifer Jones, in the amount of US$1,300, for Rotoplast.
5. President Peter announced that our Club will be getting involved with the Rotoplast project and will be sending a member of our club to Venezuela in July, 2006.
6. DG Elect, Jennifer Jones, presented a bag of 'medical supplies' to Janet Kelly for the GSE trip to Brazil.
7. Director Chuck Thompson and President Peter presented a 'gag' gift bag to Janet Kelly for the GSE trip to Brazil. There were a lot of laughs as the contents were opened.

Programme

DG Elect, Jennifer Jones, spoke very eloquently about Rotoplast and her involvement.

Sheila Blair Mosley, from the Roseland club, gave a presentation on the Guatemala Literacy Project. Guatemala has the highest rate of illiteracy in Central America. Since 1996, over 120,000 books have been placed into schools there. The next delivery of textbooks will be Feb. 17, 2007. These books remain in the schools for five years before new ones are introduced. $40 will buy a set of textbooks which will be shared by four children.

SING SONG

You've Got to Have Heart

You've gotta have heart.
All you really need is heart.
When the odds are sayin'
you'll never win,
That's when the grin should start.

You've gotta have hope.
Mustn't sit around and mope.
Nothin's half as bad as it may appear.

Wait'll next year and hope.

When your luck is battin' zero,
Get your chin up off the floor;
Mister, you can be a hero.
You can open any door.
There's nothin' to it, but to do it.

You've gotta have Heart,
Miles 'n' miles 'n' of heart,
Oh, it's fine to be a genius
of course,

But keep that old horse
before the cart,

First you've gotta have heart!

Take Me Out To The Ball Game

Take me out to the ball game.
Take me out to the crowd.
Buy me some peanuts
and crackerjack,
I don't care if I never get back!

As we root-root-root
for the home team.
If they don't win it's a shame.
For it's One! Two!
Three strikes you're out!
At the old ball game.

SING A SONG TO ROTARY

Sing a song
to Rotary
Shout
'til the rafters ring
Stand and give a cheer once again
Let every loyal member sing
Sing to all the happy hours
Hail to
the cheerful days
Here's
to Rotary forever
It's a memory
in our hearts always.

Wit and Wisdom from Walt (Hadden)

With baseball just around the corner, what fan would not remember Yogi and his Yogi-isms?

- "So I'm ugly. So what? I never saw anyone hit with his face." "Baseball is 90% mental. The other half is physical."
- "We just agree differently." (on his clashes with Yankees owner George Steinbrenner when Berra managed the team)
- "Thanks. You don't look so hot yourself." (in response to NY Mayor Lindsay's wife complimenting him on appearing cool on a sweltering afternoon)
- "It ain't over till it's over." "Never answer an anonymous letter."
- "I usually take a two-hour nap from 1 to 4." "When you come to a fork in the road, take it."
- "I didn't really say everything I said." "You can observe a lot by watching."
- "You mean now?" (in response to being asked what time it was) "It gets late early out there."
- "The future ain't what it used to be." "Nobody goes there anymore; it's too crowded."
