

ROTARY CLUB OF WINDSOR (1918)

Today's Program
DECEMBER 3, 2007

'Assumption High School Interact Club Installation' Speaker: Kay Curtis

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Walter Willms presented Louis Mayrand with a 50-year membership pin and a Life Membership Certificate.

Nigel Couch, Manager of Programs, at the Multicultural Council, filled us in on the role of the MCC in our community. About 3,000 new immigrants to Canada settle in Windsor every year and the MCC, through programs such as language instruction, life skills, help and employment services, help new immigrants adjust to life in a new country. Nigel's colleague, Rosemary Holt, gave us more details on each program, including its major fundraiser, Carousel of Nations.

LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. President Shari announced that our newest member, Ken Wheeldon, has agreed to help with finances on the Art in the Park committee.
2. Ken Sherman reported that the Ccoral fundraising event he hosted was a success, with over 75 people in attendance. A cheque for $530 was presented to David Boyd, Chair of the club's Foundation Fund.
3. P.P. Maureen Lucas reminded all members that elections for the Board, 2008-09, will be held next Monday. Members will have an opportunity to vote throughout the week as well as at the following Monday meeting.
4. P.P. Maureen presented a cheque for just over $3,900 to the Children's Safety Village for their portion of the fence signage at the Village from Children's Fest 2007.
5. President Shari thanked Scott Elliott for arranging for a $1,500 donation through a volunteer grant program offered by the BMO Financial Group. These funds are to be used, at the President's discretion, to support children and young adults in our community.
