

ROTARY CLUB OF WINDSOR (1918)

Today's Program
JANUARY 29, 2007

'SOCIAL HELP IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS'

Speaker: Ronna Warsh, General Manager
Social & Health Services, City of Windsor

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAMME

Jane Galbraith, author of a book entitled "Baby Boomers Face Grief" was our guest speaker and advised everyone to talk about grief and not hold it inside. As difficult as it seems, after the death of a loved one, life does go on. Grief comes, and keeps coming, in irregular waves. Grief brings emotional and physical changes in all aspects of the bereaved one's life. One never gets over their loss, one just learns to live with it. Ninety million baby boomers will, in the next 20 years, face the loss of one or both parents. In Jane's opinion the baby boomer generation, through the sheer force of their numbers, has the ability to make positive changes in the way this and succeeding generations handle grief.

LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS
