LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. President Maureen adjourned the regular meeting for a special Club Assembly to deal with an unfinished item - the appointment of annual auditors. Treasurer, Karen Durocher, moved the appointment of Price-Waterhouse Cooper. The motion was carried unanimously.
2. Lex McCrindle informed members not to use the Rotary Foundation tax receipts they may have recently received from R.I. They are, in part, duplicates, and were sent in error.
3. A special farewell was given to Terry Finn who is relocating to Kingston. Terry, who was accompanied by his wife Janet, was praised and thanked for his dedication to the club and for his leadership during his 2002-03 term as President. He was presented with our Club banner, mounted and signed by club members, and framed in a shadow box. Janet reminded everyone of the tin cans that used to be on the tables during Terry's presidency and then asked everyone to fill one up. A total of $194.77 was collected and donated to the Children's Safety Village. Terry, you'll be missed!
4. Janet Kelly announced that more than 60 Easter 'baskets', taken and filled by our members, were distributed.
