LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Jim Chrichton, anchor for A-Channel news, and Margaret Ann Prince, Chair of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Walter Hadden for his 36 years of service on the Board. Congratulations, Walter!

Major Alf Richardson, Ontario Great Lakes Divisional Commander, expressed thanks to our club for once again hosting the Salvation Army Advisory Board's Annual Luncheon, and to the community for its continuing support of the Army's programs. Holding it's first service in London, Ontario in 1882, the Salvation Army is celebrating its 125th year in Canada. Now with 80,000 members, 328 churches and 110 social institutions, the Army is our largest non-governmental direct provider of social services, helping 994,000 people last year in Canada alone. It continues to work toward its dream 'giving hope today' for the betterment of the community and the world.
