

ROTARY CLUB OF WINDSOR (1918)

Today's Program
NOVEMBER 19, 2007

'WORLD COMMUNITY SERVICE' Speaker: Jim Moore

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

President Shari Cunningham introduced, and sponsored, and PDG Murray Elder pinned, new member, Catherine White.

PDG Bob Gallagher, District Foundation Committee Chair, shared some amazing statistics with our club on the Rotary Foundation. Through our donations to the Foundation, RI has so far been able to offer US $244 million in Matching Grants for international projects, send 37,412 Ambassadorial Scholars to study in other countries, and inoculate 2 billion children against the polio virus. This is just a small sample of the good that is done in the world through TRF. In order to continue this work, Bob asks that each member consider contributing at least US$100 per year. At the US$1,000 or more level, members are recognized with a Paul Harris Fellowship. Many members of our club and their families are Paul Harris Fellows and many more were recognized at the ceremony following Bob's presentation. Congratulations to all.

LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Ken Sherman reminded all to RSVP for the Ccoral Open House this Wednesday, with partial proceeds benefiting our local Foundation.
2. Bill MacArthur introduced the 'Family Matters' table. Thanks for sharing your bios with us. We are fortunate to have such interesting and accomplished Rotarians in our club.
3. President Shari read a letter of greetings, to our club, from the Rotary Eye Institute in India.

THANK-YOU!

Dear Shari: I do want to express in writing my sincere thanks for allowing The Salvation Army to once again partner with the Rotary Club of Windsor (1918) to present our Annual Advisory Board Luncheon on November 5th. It is such a good mix and works very well!

Please express my appreciation to the members of the club for their support of this event. I was very pleased with the attendance and the spirit of the meeting.

Again, many thanks for your cooperation and support.

God bless!

Sincerely,

Patricia J. Phinney, Major, Public Relations & Development Director, London/Windsor
