

ROTARY CLUB OF WINDSOR (1918)

Today's Program
NOVEMBER 26, 2007

'An Update on the Role of the Multicultural Council of Windsor & Essex County' Speaker: Nigel Couch

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Walter Willms introduced, and PDG Fred Sorrell pinned, our newest member, Ken Wheeldon. Ken is a past president of the Kirkland Lake Rotary club.

Jim Moore, Chair of World Community Service, gave a brief history of the committee, and went back 30 years ago when they sent medical supplies to Haiti and dug water wells there..

Dr. Godfrey Bacheyie spoke about his projects in Ghana, such as the Art Leadley Library, the workshop for disabled women in Jirapa and the Duori school. Dr. Anne Snowdon spoke about a new EHealth project that is at the funding stage. An announcement from the government will be forthcoming. Dr. Hasu Naik spoke about his India projects, such as the Rotary Eye Institute, the micro credit programs and the women's empowerment programs. He also has a project in Africa doing cataract surgeries.

LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. President Elect Romeo Girardi asked that all members check their Wheel envelopes each week, because they sometimes include other communications and it also saves mailing costs.
2. The Annual General Meetings of both the Rotary Club of Windsor (1918) and the Rotary Club of Windsor Foundation Fund are scheduled for Monday, December 10th.
3. Don Larkin gave a brief report on RYLA.
4. Shelley Duben, President of the St. Clair Club, presented a cheque for $1,000 to our Foundation Fund for the work that our office has done, and is doing, in making deposits and issuing tax receipts for R.E.L.A.Y.
5. Allan Kidd Jr. announced that the 'Scotch Tasting' event is scheduled for Thursday, January 17th at McKenzie Hall.
6. Don Snyder asked everyone to please consider buying Christmas Cards to support the Children's Safety Village.

Make a Difference in Ghana

Fellow Rotarians, your contribution, large or small, can make a life-changing difference to the disabled women of Jirapa and/or the junior high school students in Duori.

Please make your check payable to the Rotary Club of Windsor Foundation Fund and specify 'disabled women' or 'Duori school' - you'll lend a hand to a deserving person and you'll get an income tax receipt.
