

ROTARY CLUB OF WINDSOR (1918)

Today's Program
OCTOBER 22, 2007

'THE GREENING OF WINDSOR REGIONAL HOSPITAL' Speakers: Kevin Marshall and Andy Pears

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Chris Woodrich, who traveled to Indonesia under Rotary's Youth Exchange program, gave a power point presentation of his trip. He had extensive pictures and it was evident that he truly enjoyed his trip.

Neil McBeth, DG Nominee discussed a new Club Leadership Plan for our club as adapted from the plan developed by R.I. He said that in order for a club to be successful, they must sustain and increase membership and train new leaders. A new club structure will assist with these goals, made up of five committees: Administration, PR, Membership, Service and Rotary Foundation. The key is to have these committees work together in alliance with a common strategic plan. Each committee will be kept accountable to all other committees to ensure a steady progression towards the goals, as per the strategic plan of the club.

LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Derek Foote, from the Essex Rotary club, presented a cheque to us, for $500, from the proceeds of a breakfast they provided at Art in the Park.
2. Jim Grundy, from Windsor St. Clair, asked for items/donations for their annual auction fundraiser.
3. Don Larkin spoke about RYLA, and declared that we have 8 students that will be attending the conference this year. He would like to see our club be the largest supporter in the District by sending 10 students, which means we need sponsorship help from our members to send two more.
4. Bill MacArthur has a mixed CD from President's Night and will make a copy for anyone that would like one, in return for a donation to the Foundation.

THANK-YOU Dear Club Members: Thank you so much for the beautiful flowers. We enjoyed meeting all of Andy's friends and hearing stories of him in Rotary. When he was younger and able he loved attending the luncheon meetings.

The Family of Andy Anderson

On Wednesday, October 17, 2007, John McGivney, was a recipient of the University of Windsor 2007 Clark Award. Congratulations, John!

The Rotary office is in need of a good computer. If your company is upgrading, or just has one that's not being used, and you would be willing to donate it, please contact Brenda in the office. Thanks.

In the WECSSAA Tennis Championships at Parkside Tennis Club, exchange student, Yanik Fuchs played in, and won, the mixed doubles division title for St. Joseph's High School. Yanik, and his partner, will advance to SWOSSAA. Congratulations, Yanik!
