

ROTARY CLUB OF WINDSOR (1918)

Today's Program
September 17, 2007

'DISTRICT GOVERNOR'S VISIT JENNIFER JONES

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Milt Grant used his relaxed dry wit to introduce his "Family Matters" group - J.P. Hatnean, Joe Greco, Bryan Head, Tom Holmes, Ian Henderson and the absent Walt Hadden.

The Club Assembly focused on our main fundraising event, Art in the Park, with team presentations by Margurite Reid, Karen Durocher and Matt Dunlop and Bill McRae. Art in the Park generates approximately 50% of our Club's annual revenue as well as being one of our signature community events. Being an outdoor event, the success of AIP can be seriously affected by the weather, as was the case this year. Margurite gave a detailed outline of this year's change of focus of AIP to include more fine arts type exhibitors as well as live art tents and musical entertainment. She closed by inviting Rotarians to volunteer for key leadership roles in AIP for 2008. Suggestions from the floor included having a dedicated crafts corner, inviting Essex County's wineries to participate and possibly moving the date to the second week of June.
