LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Allan Kidd Jr. announced and Don Snyder and PDG Roy Lancaster presented PHFs, from an anonymous donor, to Dr. Gordon Drake and Mike Drake. Three PHFs, from Hasu Naik, for members of his family, were also presented.

As part of our Remembrance Day program, Lieutenant-Colonel Morris W. Brause CO E&K, gave us some insight into the activities of our soldiers in Afghanistan and previous military theatres. He described Canada's role, not as peace-keepers, but as a soldiering action in an effort to maintain a type of peace. His talk was extremely informative and very moving.

LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. President Romeo announced that long-time member, and a Past President, Dr. John Maus, has passed away. The funeral will take place in Ayr but there will be a Memorial Service in Windsor sometime in November. Brenda Cohen will advise as to the details.
2. President Romeo reported that he, along with Fred Sorrell and Walter Willms, had represented (1918) at the 7th Anniversary celebration of the Amherstburg Rotary Club last Saturday.
3. President Romeo also reported that the Groundbreaking Ceremony for the John McGivney Children's Centre was well attended by our Club and it was a proud moment for our membership who have pledged $1million.
4. Margaret Ann Prince reminded everyone that tickets are still available for the Salvation Army Advisory Board Luncheon being held next Monday and that tickets must be purchased in advance.
5. Allan Kidd Jr. reminded everyone about the Scotch Tasting event taking place on Saturday, November 22nd at Mackenzie Hall.
6. President Romeo reminded everyone about elections and the future leadership of our club.
