

November 3rd.

Annual General Meeting of the
Rotary Club of Windsor Foundation Fund

1950 - Constructed a Hydro Therapy Pool at the Red Cross Building

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Nick Bibic and Phil Cohen presented Jim Evans, Chair of the Willistead Board, with a Club cheque for $25,084, for this year's proceeds for the ongoing restoration of Willistead Manor. Jim, after thanking the Club, talked about, how since the beginning, he and the Board, have been thankful to the Rotary Club of Windsor (1918) for all their help towards the restoration. He said that handrails, paint and floor lightings are just a few of the upgrades made to the Manor with our money.

PP Shari Cunningham spoke about Mayor Eddie Francis and Past Chairs of Art in the Park, John McGivney and Margurite Reid, presented Mayor Eddie Francis with a 'big cheque' for $1million. This represented 30 years of contribution by our Club for the restoration of Willistead Manor. Mayor Francis spoke about the many challenges being faced today because of the economic climate, but, he said, what makes him so proud of Rotary is the 'spirit' - the 'Rotary spirit'. He also said that if Rotary hadn't started this project, we wouldn't have Willistead to show to our kids, because it probably wouldn't be there. He went on to say he is proud to be a Rotarian, because 'Rotary brings hope'.
