LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

President Bill delivered his Farewell Address to the Club in which he summarized the year's activities, noting that the Club came through in answering his request for help at the start of the year. He thanked club members for all of their help, and in particular, thanked Brenda Cohen and Walter Willms along with Board Members, Committee Chairs and Honorary Members as well as DG Neil and ADG Arnie. He emphasized that during his year as President there were important objectives: 1. The Club's approach to the John McGivney Centre and Maryvale, both important institutions doing a lot to help children of our community; 2. The financial stability of the Club, noting that although this was touch, the Club had achieved a balanced budget for the first time in spite of the watery and abrupt conclusion to Art in the Park; 3. Increasing Club membership amongst younger people; and, 4. To have fun. He concluded with the advice to take Rotary seriously but not ourselves. the success of Art in the Park and recognized the efforts of Shari Cunningham. He concluded by noting that the personal highlight for him had been the Club's overwhelming support for Haiti.

Fred Sorrell thanked President Bill noting that he did a great job in a very tough year. Fred Sorrell pinned Rick Caron as the Club's incoming 93rd President of the Rotary Club of Windsor.

2009-2010 BINGOS

During the past fiscal year the Club had 16 Bingo dates with 35 two-hour sessions. Nearly $18,000 was raised to support the work of the Adult Assistance and Youth Services Committees as well as other community services and projects.

Eight DREAM TEAM MEMBERS - Nick Bibic, Anil Chitte, Gazmend Dervishaj, Gord Faas, Sheila Gordon, Don Spafford, Ken Wheeldon and Walter Willms - worked a total of 53 Bingos. Way to Go, TEAM! Early in the year, Bogi Vukojev resigned after working one Bingo. Late in the year, David Moon joined the TEAM and worked two Bingos; Neil Bear joined and worked one Bingo. Thanks DEAM TEAM; you make the Bingos work!

Twenty-five other Club members worked 27 Bingos. There continues to be a need for individuals to step to the plate to work occasionally; once or twice a year will do it! Let's keep our Bingos as the Club's second major fundraiser!
