

The 4-Way Test

Of the things we think, say or do

1. Is it the truth?
2. Is it fair for all concerned?
3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

LAST WEEK'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

1. Ellen Hope announced that the advance tickets for Art in the Park are available - 10 for $20 for our members.
2. Shari Cunningham gave an update on Art in the Park, noting that there will be 8 billboards in the City. She asked that all of us forward information about Art in the Park to family and friends.
3. President Elect Rick gave an update on District Conference and our Club's showing in various award categories, noting that our Club had a strong presence in all categories.

LAST WEEK'S PROGRAM

Miley and Pepe gave their Youth Exchange report for the week.

Jim Adkin announced that he had met with Moe Armstrong, who while still an active member was granted leave to not attend meetings and so has not attended for many years, has never resigned and still remains interested in Rotary. Moe sends his thanks to Rotary for thinking of him.

Jerry Lewis gave an entertaining presentation on the Detroit Tigers Fantasy Camp, explaining how he grew up always wanting to be a Detroit Tiger and, that encouraged by the G.M. of the Tigers, in 1983, he set up a camp based on the 1968 Detroit Tigers that evolved into a popular and very successful camp experience where participants basically get to be a Detroit Tiger, wear the Tiger's uniform, play baseball all day long with retired Tigers and socialize with those retired Tigers in the evening. He noted that while his organization has organized Fantasy Camps with the Pistons and the Red Wings, the concept has been most popular and successful with baseball with participants from all over the United States and Canada.
