President Rick spoke about the many, many accomplishments our Club made during 2010-2011. He stated that our Club is as strong as it is because of the work of so many Rotarians over many years. He recognized the many past presidents who are current members and asked them to stand and be recognized. President Rick went through a myriad of items such as our donations to the John McGivney Children's Centre, the Rotary Home for Children & Youth at Maryvale and Willistead Manor. He spoke about the Detroit Literacy program, Adventures in Citizenship, Dr. Clare MacLeod Secondary School Volunteer Awards Luncheon, Rotaract and Interact Clubs, The Salvation Army Soup Kitchen and Christmas Kettle Campaign and the Easter Basket Drive. The list went on and on! He ended by thanking everyone, committee chairs, members of the executive, members of the Board and all members of the Club, and by saying "Folks, this Club has done a lot. It's no wonder we are the 2010-2011 Dick Hedke Club!!"

BINGO REPORT FOR 2010-2011

Classic Bingo IV Charity Association allocated 15 Bingo dates, with 37 two-hour sessions, to our Club for 2010-2011. The net revenue will be close to $16,000.00; these funds have been and are being used to support the work of the Adult Assistance and Youth Services Committees, as well as Community Programs and Services that the Club is able to support.

The Bingo successes were accomplished with the generous efforts of the BINGO DREAM TEAM - Neil Bear, Nick Bibic, Sue Byron, Anil Chitte and Gazmend Dervishaj, Gord Faas, Sheila Gordon, Ed Viselli, Ken Wheeldon and Walter Willms - who worked a total of 47 Bingo dates. These 10 conscientious members were graciously supported by 21 'occasional' volunteers who worked a total of 30 Bingo dates.

Many thanks to all who continue to make Bingo the Club's second major fundraiser!

Respectfully submitted:    Walter Willms, Bingo Coordinator
